Terms of use

Texts, images, diagrams as well as the design of these internet pages may be subject to copyright.

Not protected by copyright according to § 5 of the Copyright Act (UrhG) are

- Laws, ordinances, official decrees and notices, as well as decisions and officially drafted guidelines on decisions and

- other official works which have been published in the official interest for general knowledge, with the restriction that the provisions on prohibition of modification and indication of source in Section 62 (1) to (3) and Section 63 (1) and (2) UrhG shall apply accordingly.

As a private person, you may use copyrighted material for private and other own use within the scope of § 53 UrhG. Any duplication or use of objects such as images, diagrams, sounds or texts in other electronic or printed publications is not permitted without our agreement. This consent will be granted upon request by the person responsible for the content. The reprinting and evaluation of press releases and speeches are generally permitted with reference to the source.

Furthermore, texts, images, diagrams and other files may be subject in whole or in part to the copyright of third parties. The persons responsible for the content will also provide you with more detailed information on the existence of possible third-party rights.
